

Model 200

Quality and Value

The new Stevens Model 200 carries the spirit of fine workmanship and honest value. From the first rifle, Stevens has staked their reputation on a standard of quality that never varies. Each rifle is designed to meet the requirements of hunters and sportsmen who insist upon the best value available. Featuring a dual pillar bedded, gray synthetic stock, with button rifled free-floating barrel, the Model 200 is the best value in a bolt-action rifle. Offered in a variety of calibers, in short or long action, it's the perfect rifle at a reasonable price.
